

IS 2012 YOUR TENNIS TEAM'S YEAR TO KICK SOME BUTT?

Book a Team Retreat at the spectacular Yonahlossee Resort & Racquet Club outside of Blowing Rock, NC. Here, beneath the mile high peaks of the Blue Ridge Mountains and beside boulder-strewn streams, you will drill, strategize and play under the tutelage of head tennis pro Bryan Dirk – our level 1 certified U.S.P.T.A. instructor. At Yonahlossee, our indoor courts assure your team of play without weather worries. Resort amenities include workout room, indoor pool, massage, personal training, hiking trails and yoga. The adjoining Yonahlossee Inn provides walk-to-the-court accommodations. And finally, after a strenuous workout, your team can walk to one of the Southeast's most dynamic restaurants, The Game Keeper or drive less than a mile to the Crestwood Inn for dinner. And, oh yes, did we mention the magical village of Blowing Rock – less than five miles away – with its unique shops and eclectic dining?

We call it a girls' getaway with benefits. Oh My!
